Decision Time!

Spotbite You are 500 years old. You have travelled to all the continents. You have met many people and have lived through many experiences. You have learned many things. One day in a Tibetan cave you met a hermit monk of your own age. He has never moved from his cave and knows meditation well. What do you do?

- a) You move away so as not to disturb the monk's meditation;
- b) You challenge the monk and confront him with what you have learned in your life;
- c) Listen curiously to the monk's stories.

Decision Time!

Julius You escaped from your burning land because of the war that destroyed it for 10 years. You carry your old father on your shoulders and lead your little brother by his hand. You manage to board a ship that takes you to a distant region, where a hospitable and generous people live. They offer you to stay with them:

- a) Accept and build your new life there;
- b) Refuse and resume your journey to discover new adventures;
- c) You refuse and try to return to your homeland to contribute to its reconstruction.

Decision Time!

Nadrag The world you live in is the best possible world. Everyone is friends with everyone. Peace and collaboration reign. One day, suddenly, a spaceship falls into the middle of the sea. Inside there is a vase with a lid. It contains the worst evils in the world. What do you decide to do?

- a) You open it and endanger everyone;
- b) Throw it to the bottom of the sea, so no one can find it;
- c) Keep it and put it on display to share it with others.

Decision Time!

Fatafro You were an ordinary boy, then one day a sorceress in love with you transformed you. The sorceress gives you some of her powers. You can make very long jumps. You can also breathe underwater where you go hunting for pearls. One day you meet a powerful sorcerer who offers you one of three possibilities:

- a) Stay in the enchanted forest;
- b) Give up your powers and return to your original world;
- c) Living in the forest as a human;

Decision Time!

Topvol You are a fragile and delicate young man. You love to play and sing. You are alone, your parents are gone. You escape from the college where you lived and you meet a great artist. The artist offers you to play with him on stage to inaugurate his concert. You are afraid, close your eyes and:

- a) Sing a song written by you and enchant the audience;
- b) Run away: seeing all those people blocks your voice;
- c) You start singing together with your teacher: from now on you will play and sing together
